

First Lynn Blake Certified Senior Instructors in the Carolinas

EATONTON, GEORGIA – March 31, 2010

Rick Murphy and Curt Sanders, both long-term members of the Carolinas PGA, have completed all requirements for Lynn Blake Certified Senior Instructor Training and have been awarded the first Senior Instructor status in The Carolinas. Mr. Murphy, founder of Carolina Golf Academy in Greensboro, NC, is the 2008 Carolinas PGA Professional of the Year and the 2001 and 2009 Teacher of the Year. Mr. Sanders, Assistant Golf Professional at Eagle Point Golf Club in Wilmington, NC, is the 2008 Carolinas PGA Section Champion and 2009 Player of the Year.

“We are very proud that Rick and Curt are the first professionals in The Carolinas to have achieved our Senior Instructor designation. It is gratifying that men of their stature have chosen to pursue our training,” said Meredith Kahan, Executive Director of the Lynn Blake Certified Instructor Program. “These gentlemen have blue-ribbon credentials, and they are a true credit to our organization and the game.”
